

What associations do these images conjure up? You might think about how YOU respond to them, but also how you imagine a white member at your church might respond to them. Draw lines or write letters next to each photograph.

Associations:

- a Criminal
- b Citizen
- c Beautiful
- d American
- e Good mother
- f Strong

- g Exotic
- h Unprofessional
- i Hypersexual
- j Patriotic
- k Angry
- l Threat

- m Authentic
- n Tender
- o Moral
- p Aggressive
- q Noble
- r Animal-like

Resources for Expanding Our Archives

Little Known Historical Images

Gordon Parks, "Segregation Story" color photographs from 1956	www.gordonparksfoundation.org
Images of African Americans during World War II	www.archives.gov/research/african-americans/ww2-pictures
Gladstone Collection of African American Photographs (mostly Civil War era)	www.loc.gov/pictures/collection/gld/
Kwame Brathwaite, "Black is Beautiful," photographs from the 1950s and 1960s	www.aperture.org/exhibition/kwame-brathwaiteblack-beautiful/
Blvck Vrchives on Instagram	www.instagram.com/blvckvrchives/

Contemporary Artists Engaging Stereotypes

Amy Sherald	www.amysherald.com
Carrie Mae Weems	www.carriemaeweems.net
Hank Willis Thomas	www.hankwillisthomas.com
Kehinde Wiley	www.kehindewiley.com
Kerry James Marshall	www.jackshainman.com/artists/kerryjames-marshall
Lorna Simpson	www.lsimpsonstudio.com
Mickalene Thomas	www.mickalenethomas.com
Titus Kaphar	www.kapharstudio.com/category/painting
Whitfield Lovell	www.dcmooregallery.com/artists/whitfield-lovell

